A VAST WORLD OF DISTINCTIVE HOTELS, RESORTS AND VACATION RESIDENCES

VISIT COASTAL MAINE

Experience an iconic coast at an iconic resort.

Coastal Maine, with its splendid backdrop of rocky, rugged bluffs and seemingly endless ocean views, is easily one of the most picturesque spots in the country. Fortunately for summer travelers, there's much more to the area than just good looks. Below, a handy guide of activities & things to do during your next visit.

NUBBLE LIGHTHOUSE

No visit to Cape Neddick would be complete without taking a proper picture of this iconic, quintessentially Maine lighthouse. Though it's not open to visitors, head to nearby Sohier Park for the best views and photo ops.

MARGINAL WAY

For grand, sweeping views of the Atlantic Ocean, take a leisurely stroll along this paved walking trail, which stretches from Perkins Cove to Shore Road. Originally built in 1925, it also features 40 benches for you to relax, sit, and take in the breathtaking scenery.

BRETON'S FISHING CHARTERS

Everyone loves fresh Maine lobster, so why not learn how it's caught? Charter a vessel, and for a couple hours, witness firsthand what it's like to be a lobsterman and to haul traps. It's a truly unique sea to fork experience. When it's time to tuck in, be our guest at the Cliff House, Cape Neddick, ME

Summertime in Vail, the Other Season

Colorado is famous for powdery slopes and an abundance of winter recreation. It is why those who live there, moved to the Rockies in the first place. But the reason they stayed is for the summers. Vail's captivating beauty and bustling yet quaint village make it an appealing place to visit any time of the year. Enjoy nearby hiking through lush forests in the spring and summer.

Experience Epic Discovery, a mountain top adventure park, marvel at the goldenhued Aspen trees in the fall. And stroll through distinctive boutiques, fine restaurants, charming cafes and art galleries in a town that feels as if it is nestled in Bavaria. Vail truly is a magical place. And when the day's activities come to an end, rest and relax at one of our properties:

DISCOVER MAUI

From shimmering beaches and sacred sites to migrating humpback whales and sunrise on Haleakala, there's no shortage of things to do on the island - it's not surprising Maui was voted the "Best Island" by the readers of Conde Nast Traveler for more than twenty years.

With the genuine warmth of aloha, Destination Residences Hawaii welcomes guests as family to our Maui island home. Your Maui vacation begins in Hawaii's acclaimed luxury destinations of Wailea and Makena featuring stunning sandy beaches, championship golf courses, Maui chef dining experiences, world class spas, art galleries, designer boutiques and lavish resort hotels. Select from the largest collection in Wailea and Makena of premium beachfront, oceanfront and golf-front vacation residences in eight distinct Maui resorts.

A WORLD OF PRIVILEGE ON A CATAMARAN

When you want to escape the hustle and bustle of Playa del Carmen, head for the water

Fat Cat Catamaran offers four-hour tours. Cruise the coast one hour each way, drop fishing rods, spot turtles and stingrays at a secluded bay, and dive into a natural swimming pool.

The company provides snorkeling equipment as well as some other crucial cruise accoutrements: sandwiches, chips, cookies, and an open bar. For special events, book a private charter tour.

In the heart of Riviera Maya, Thompson Playa del Carmen gives you the choice of two luxury hotel experiences, a dreamscape rooftop oasis and a beachfront refuge, all depending on your mood.

Set a world apart in terms of attitude, yet a stroll away from one another on Playa's vibrant central quarter known as Quinta Avenida, these refined destinations are both yours to explore. Rest and relax in the intimate downtempo vibes of The Beach House, then swap beachwear for dancing shoes and take the night to another level on our rooftop pool oasis at the celebrated CATCH, where stunning panoramic views and danceable beats will keep you out late into the Riviera Maya night.

Encapsulated in the renowned midcentury designs of Mexico City's Niz + Chauvet, there isn't a detail to be missed or a moment you'll forget.

KID'S RULE AT TERRANEA.

Experience family fun at LA's coastal resort

Perched on beautiful bluffs in Rancho Palos Verdes is Terranea, a 102-acre family friendly resort in Southern, California, that's proving that a luxurious getaway can be truly inclusive, even when you're traveling with children. In addition to spacious accommodations and breathtaking views of the Pacific Ocean, there's plenty of kid-friendly activities on-site and in the area. Here, a shortlist of the best things to do.

Water's the word here. The resort pool is the perfect spot to take in some sun, and cool off in the water. And the 140-foot water slide provides endless thrills for kids of all ages. Younger ones will enjoy frolicking in the Splash Zone.

Are your kids aspiring nature buffs? Then be sure to visit the resort's very own Falconers, who will show you everything you need to know about these truly majestic birds in a safe, guided setting. You can also take a self-guided nature walk along the Discovery Trail. It surrounds Terranea, and offers up a close-up look at local wildlife and flowers.

When you and the family are ready to unwind after a long day, head to dinner at Nelson's and Catalina Kitchen. Both restaurants offer fresh and approachable California cuisine, and plenty of crowd-pleasing favorites for everyone. And every Friday night, you can enjoy s'mores by one of the toasty fire pits.
