

50 BOWERY NYC

Social distancing and virtual meeting options

Hotel 50 Bowery NYC is proud to debut our updated meetings and events offerings, featuring enhanced health and hygiene protocols, social distancing setups and the ability to host virtual meetings with the help of our in-house production team.

- Various social distancing setups available
- Private 2,000 sq. ft. outdoor terrace, with option to have a tent
- Advanced health and hygiene standards for staff and attendees
- Meeting space is accessible via one flight of stairs to avoid elevators
- Existing technology in place to host virtual event and provide a live broadcast

Virtual Meeting Capabilities

Not everyone is comfortable with in-person meetings or events. Virtual events allow you to bring a small group of attendees, and provide a live broadcast to other meeting attendees around the world. Our in-house team at OS Studios can assist you in making your meeting come to life. Starting at $2,000 per day, they can provide the following A/V services:

- On-site engineering team
- HD camera kit with sound
- Mobile control room
- Post production services
