

BRIDES

BACHELORETTE

9 New York City Hotels That Were Practically Made for Bachelorette Parties

Concrete jungle, where [bachelorette] dreams are made of...

By Kelli Acciaro Updated on November 20, 2018

Let's be honest: When it comes to where to bach it up in the city that never sleeps, you still want a major place to sleep—after all that wining, dining, and late-night partying, which can be exhausting to say the least. Enter these hotels. Between their upscale restaurants, rooftop amenities (in the form of pools, bars, and a “ski chalet”), spas, and group-friendly packages, they're bound to make you want to dial up the room service and never leave the grounds until it's time to check out. Should you choose to see the sights, however, we've got itinerary options galore. Peruse this list of must-visit properties below, then hand off your favorite to those in charge of the actual planning process.

Park South Hotel

For a “Joie de Vivre” vibe (in the heart of NYC), Park South Hotel fits the bill. This buzzy boutique landmark has everything vacationing foodies could want: bar snacks and skyscraper vistas at Roof, late-night pizza and hangover curing brunch eats at Covina Bar and Restaurant, and gastronomic delights at o ya (where you might catch a glimpse of celeb fans and #powercouple Blake and Ryan)—all helmed by James Beard Award-winning Chef Tim Cushman. Their glam rooms also serve as the perfect place to primp, with floor-length mirrors surrounded by giant windows to capture that good light. Plus, when you sign up for their joy of life club you'll earn rewards points towards your next girls' getaway at one of their sister properties.