

NEWS

January 30, 2018

7 Top Hotel Openings to Watch in 2018

Get inspired to book your next vacation with these exciting property openings across the globe.

Keep these new properties on your radar this year.

If you're mapping out your vacation plans and you're not sure where to go in the year ahead, add these inspiring hotels to your list. With inviting swimming pools, high-end spas, stylish rooftop lounges, standout dining venues and superlative views, these high-end boutique hotels and luxury resorts – found everywhere from Tunisia to Texas – are upping the cool factor. Read on to discover trendsetting hotel openings to watch in 2018.

(Courtesy of COMO Hotels and Resorts)

Hotel Revival

Baltimore

Opening in the heart of Baltimore's Mount Vernon neighborhood in spring 2018, Hotel Revival will be housed in a historic building dating back to 1929. The boutique hotel will feature Square Meal, a ground-floor restaurant serving seasonal American fare, a lobby lounge and

(Courtesy of Hotel Revival)

Topside, a rooftop restaurant and bar dishing out seafood-centric Chesapeake Bay specialties paired with sweeping city views. As an added bonus, the property will feature an enclosed rooftop garden bar, as well as three private karaoke rooms.