The Best Hotel Room Service in the U.S.

Written by Paul Rubio | February 09, 2017

Whether you're planning a lazy, bathrobe-over-PJs weekend escape or a romantic outing (Valentine's Day is coming...), these hotels have room service that goes far beyond the warm lettuce and basic burgers. You don't even have to make a reservation at a Jean-Georges or José Andrés restaurant—they'll come to you.

Thompson Chicago

Why we love it: It's farm-to-fork dining at the Thompson Chicago, where James Beard Award winner Paul Kahan and chef Erling Wu-Bower create Italian-inspired food using ingredients from local farmers and Chicago's Green City Market (we recommend the open-faced burrata sandwich for lunch and the market fish or the simple-yet-perfect spaghetti for dinner).
