IMMERSE IN THE LOCAL CULTURE THOMPSON STYLE

About Culture Lives Here

Thompson Playa del Carmen is proud to launch Culture Lives Here, a program happening at Thompson Hotels everywhere, showcasing diverse, emerging local talent—dubbed “culture shifters”—spanning across music, art, fashion, design, and culinary. As part of Culture Lives Here, Thompson Playa del Carmen has teamed up with Chef Pedro Abascal and DJ Dulce Rullan, giving them the space to bring their talents to life, all while offering our guests and locals unique experiences.

About Culture Shifters

Culture shifters are passionate creators, who, through their lives and their work, impact culture in meaningful, original, and cool ways. They are permanently open-minded, comfortable in the discomfort of discovery, and exhibit an unwavering cultural allegiance to what lasts.
