AT SQUAW CREEK

Welcome to Resort at Squaw Creek

Celebrate the beginning of your life together in one of the most stunning mountain valleys in the west. This day is all about you and your love, your family and friends, and one of the happiest moments of your entire life. Let us help you make it exactly what you want.

The Venue

Celebrate your wedding surrounded by breathtaking views, towering trees, magnificent peaks, and a sparkling night sky.

Resort at Squaw Creek is an award-winning, AAA Four Diamond resort that offers a full complement of services and amenities to meet your needs.

Beyond the beautiful surroundings, Resort at Squaw Creek presents a fantastic array of ceremony and reception sites.

CEREMONY SITES

The Golf Course

Nestled in the trees on a soft green grass this ceremony location offers serene meadow views.

The Pavilion

Exchange vows in front of a magnificent 250 foot waterfall that cascades alongside the Pavilion and into a stream that ripples through the water garden just below.

The Spa Deck

Perched above the green valley floor, this spacious, sunny patio offers views of the massive granite peaks and towering pines of Squaw Valley. The stone fireplace creates a cozy atmosphere.

The Details

The Resort at Squaw Creek will coordinate the following—

- Food and drink menu choices
- RSC table linens and napkins, flatware, dishware, and glasses
- RSC tables and chairs, as well as dance floor and staging if applicable
- RSC ceremony arbor arch
- Professional audio visual services provided by our in-house PSAV company
- Bridal party ready/staging room (subject to availability)
- Guest room accommodations with the option of a room block (subject to availability)
- Complimentary Fireplace Suite for you and your spouse on your wedding night with a VIP amenity and turndown service (subject to availability)
- Additionally, the Special Events Manager will act as a liaison between your wedding coordinator and the Resort's operational staff, while overseeing all venue planning

To ensure a completely seamless event, the Resort at Squaw Creek suggests hiring a professional wedding coordinator for at least the day of the event, if not longer. Your wedding coordinator will be responsible for the following—

- Provide day-of timeline no later than 10 days prior
- Manage wedding rehearsal, ceremony and reception
- Placement of all décor/personal items (programs, favors, escort cards, etc.)
- Liaison with all outside wedding vendors
- Assist with corsages and boutonnieres
- Collect any personal items at the end of the event
- Assist with moving wedding gifts and delivery to the chosen location

Culinary Choices

Our Special Events Manager and Executive Chef can help you create a menu that delights your guests while keeping your budget in mind. We source much of our food from local farms and artisan purveyors, and are happy to guide you in your menu choices.

Our culinary team can customize anything you wish, from the latest gastronomic trends or conscience lifestyle choices to dietary accommodations. And our on-site pastry chef will work with you to create a gorgeous custom wedding cake.

Accommodations

Part of the beauty of having your wedding at Resort at Squaw Creek is knowing you and your guests can settle into our hotel for the entire weekend. Our Four Diamond services and amenities will make your guests feel at home—yet utterly indulged.

Plan a bridal party sleepover with an in-room breakfast in one of our multi-bedroom suites the night before, and then bask in the afterglow of your wedding in one of our more intimate suites. A perfect beginning to the rest of your life together.

Links at Squaw Creek

Plan a golf outing on the Links at Squaw Creek as part of your wedding weekend to take a break from the formal events. Our golf pros can help you plan an event for any number of guests. Call the golf shop at 530.581.6637 to inquire about availability and rates.

Spa at Squaw Creek

Retreat to the intimate Spa at Squaw Creek before your ceremony to relax and take care of yourself. You can book individual treatment rooms, or reserve our Group Sanctuary for your entire bridal party. Call the Spa at 530.583.6300 to inquire about availability and rates.

Plan the Ultimate Wedding Weekend

It's a weekend that you'll remember forever – not only for your wedding, but for the fabulous events surrounding it. Distinct restaurants and private dining rooms give you endless options for entertaining your guests both before and after your wedding.

We are happy to host pre and post wedding events such as—

- › Rehearsal dinner
- › Cocktail Welcome Receptions
- › Bridal Luncheons
- › Groomsmen Luncheons
- › Day-after brunches

Keep the Party Going at Sandy's Pub

Sandy's Pub is casual and welcoming—the perfect spot for your guests to unwind from their travels.

A relaxed menu highlights traditional pub food along with California-fresh salads, soups, and small plates, accompanied by a great selection of craft beers, wines, and spirits.

Open until 2am, Sandy's Pub lets you continue celebrating after your reception ends without the hassle of planning an after-party.

"Life should not only be lived, it should be celebrated."
