Location:
Maui:
Maui, also known as “The Valley Isle,” is the second largest Hawaiian island. The island is beloved for its world-famous beaches, the sacred Iao Valley, views to migrating humpback whales (December through April), farm-to-table cuisine and the magnificent sunrise and sunset from Haleakala. Maui has been voted one of the “Best Island in the US” by Condé Nast Traveler readers for more than 20 years.

- Wailea: 15,000 acres of luxurious beaches, resorts and attractions, Wailea is in South Maui about 35 minutes from the airport. This destination is known for its five beautiful, crescent-shaped beaches, stellar golf courses and luxurious resort community with staggering ocean views. The area exudes a sense of privacy, serenity and freedom spread across an area three times the size of Waikiki. The area’s signature beaches include Wailea Beach, named “America’s Best Beach”, Polo Beach, with excellent swimming and snorkeling, and Ulua Beach Park, where early morning and sunset walkers abound. The Wailea Blue, Wailea Gold and Wailea Emerald courses make up the 54 holes of championship golf that have contributed to Wailea’s fame. Back in town, The Shops at Wailea is a destination in itself, featuring world-class restaurants and shops, along with regular entertainment programs. Wailea is also home to events such as the Maui Film Festival, February’s Whale Week, as well as award-winning restaurants serving the best of Hawaii Regional Cuisine. Wailea’s world-renowned spas round out an unforgettable Maui getaway.

- West Maui: Today, West Maui is home to spectacular resorts, shopping, restaurants, a wealth of activities and some of the most amazing sunsets in the world.

  o One of Maui’s most famous stretches of the coastline, Kaanapali Beach offers three miles of paradise where ocean adventures and total relaxation await. The sunny northwest coast of Maui was once a retreat for Hawaiian royalty and the capital of the Hawaiian Kingdom. The best way to take in the views is to explore and stroll the 1.5-mile long Kaanapali Beachwalk.

    a. Kaanapali Alii
    Kaanapali Alii, located on Maui’s westside, is an ideal destination to achieve the authentic Maui experience. This collection of spacious accommodations – perfect for family travelers – is nestled between the golden sands of Ka’anapali Beach and the famed West Maui mountains, allowing guests to immerse themselves in Hawaii’s rich culture. Perfect to experience ocean activities such as snorkeling, stand-up paddle boarding and surf lessons or other activities such as tennis, morning yoga classes or simply relaxing by one of the two freshwater swimming pools and whirlpool spas, teens can also enjoy activities such as whale watching (during whale season), Ukulele lessons, and weekly fireside Royalty Story time, a retelling of the stories of the ancient royalty who made this exact location their home. Kaanapali Alii’s accommodations consist of one- and two-bedrooms starting at $445 per night. Please reach out to request to request high-res imagery.

  o On the west side of Maui, 45 minutes from Kahului Airport, Lahaina is a historic town that has been transformed into a Maui hotspot with dozens of art galleries and a variety of unique shops and restaurants. Lahaina was also a historic whaling village and remains on the National Register of Historic Places so visitors still get a feel for old Lahaina as they stroll down lively Front Street, ranked one of the “Top Ten Greatest Streets” and where Hawaiian royalty and maritime adventurers once strolled. Guests can learn about the ancient mode of seafaring by canoe, take a hiking tour at Hike Maui, or visit Maui’s best seaside luau.

    a. Lahaina Shores Beach Resort
    Lahaina Shores Beach Resort’s location in Hawaii is unique as it is the only West Maui condo and vacation rentals that are right on the beach. Set on the oceanfront of Lahaina Town in West Maui along historic Front Street lies beachfront condo resort in Lahaina, Hawaii – a quietly elegant oasis in an unbeatable location. Guests are struck by old-fashioned charm as they pass through arched colonnades into an airy lobby, opening into the sea. Here lies a plantation style Hawaii oceanfront hotel, echoing a time when comfort and style was king. Lahaina Shores accommodations consist of one-bedrooms starting at $248 per night. Please reach out to request to request high-res imagery.

    a. Pu‘unoa Beach Estates
    Families and friends traveling together find the perfect hideaway at the oceanfront Pu‘unoa Beach Estates, an exclusive collection of Maui vacation rentals. When guests step out of the oceanfront Lahaina condo home or villa, they can hear the gentle waves lapping on a quiet sandy beach from the comfort of their home and gaze across Maui’s glistening blue Pacific to the offshore islands of Lanai and Molokai. There are only ten Pu‘unoa Beach Resort condos which assures a very private vacation experience. Pu‘unoa Beach Estates accommodations consist of two- to three-bedrooms starting at $810 per night. Island of Hawaii
The island of Hawaii offers a variety of places to explore, including some of Hawaii’s most incredible natural wonders and historic sites. No other island gives guests a place to swim with manta rays, horseback ride, whale watch, see a fiery volcano, a 420-foot waterfall, and black-sand beaches on the same visit. On the island of Hawaii cultural treasures are abundant, and with so much ground to cover, guests will see why it is known as “Hawaii’s Island of Adventure.”

- Kona-Kohala Coast: As visitors drive 20-minutes north of Ellison Onizuka Kona International Airport, they will marvel at the rugged lava fields. Though they may not see it from Queen Kaahumanu Highway, the Kohala Coast is where guests will find some of the island’s finest resorts. Nestled among the jet-black and rust-red lava rock fields are green oases full of world-class accommodations, fine dining and some of Hawaii’s best golf courses. The sun-drenched Kohala Coast sees an annual average of only nine inches, so visitors can soak in the sun at Hapuna Beach State Park, one of the island of Hawaii’s largest white sand beaches, indulge at local restaurants or recharge at a local spa. They will discover cultural treasures on the Kohala Coast, too, such as the remarkable Puukohola Heiau National Historic Site, the largest restored heiau in Hawaii.

  - Champion Ridge
    Located on the island of Hawaii, Champion Ridge at Mauna Lani is a luxurious estate home that comprises 5,000 square feet infused with the aloha sun and spirit. Featuring three master suites, a private den with a queen sleeper bed, and three-and-a-half baths, the home sleeps up to eight and includes a heated infinity pool, an outdoor kitchen on the spacious lanai and unobstructed views of the ocean, Mauna Lani Golf Course and mountains that will take one’s breath away. Guests enjoy access to the Mauna Lani Beach Club with swimming and snorkeling in an idyllic sandy beach cove. Also, within walking distance is a beautiful private garden of fruit trees reserved for guests of Champion Ridge. Champion Ridge is a three-bedroom luxury home starting at $1199 per night. Please reach out to request high-res imagery.

  - Mauna Lani Point
    Nestled on the sunny Kohala Coast is the spectacular Mauna Lani Point, the only oceanfront residential rentals within world-famous Mauna Lani Resort. These luxury island of Hawaii condo rentals offer space, value and privacy that is simply unavailable in hotel rooms and are perfect for couples or friends traveling together. Mauna Lani Point accommodations consist of one- to three-bedrooms starting at $395 per night. Please reach out to request high-res imagery.

  - Islands at Mauna Lani
    Guests will find a golfer’s paradise of world-class courses coupled with uniquely Hawaiian resort activities that excite even the most well-traveled guests. Equally popular with golfers, tennis players, beachcombers and spa aficionados, The Islands at Mauna Lani offer extra spacious two-story condo rentals and privileged views of the Mauna Lani Golf Course. These luxury condos offer value and privacy that is simply unavailable in hotel rooms. Perfect for extended families and friends traveling together, Islands at Mauna Lani accommodations consist of two- to three-bedrooms starting at $395 per night. Please reach out to request high-res imagery.

Kauai
Hawaii’s fourth largest island – sometimes called the “Garden Island” – Kauai is the oldest and northernmost island in the Hawaiian chain and is draped in emerald valleys, sharp mountain spires and jagged cliffs aged by time and elements. Centuries of growth have formed tropical rainforests, forking rivers and cascading waterfalls. Some parts of Kauai are only accessible by sea or air, revealing views beyond imagination. More than just dramatic beauty, the island is home to a variety of outdoor activities. Guests can kayak the Wailua River, snorkel on Poipu Beach, hike the trails of Kokee State Park, or go ziplining above Kauai's lush valleys – but, it is the island's laid-back atmosphere and rich culture found in its small towns that make it truly timeless.

- The Lodge at Kukui'ula
The Lodge at Kukui'ula pairs private accommodations with exclusive access to the sprawling amenities of The Club at Kukui'ula, including an 18-hole Tom Weiskopf–designed golf course, the on-site Huaka'i Outfitters shop & adventure guide program, full-service Hi'ilani spa and fitness center, a 10-acre Upcountry farm & lake, two restaurants, saltwater Makai pools, a kids’ club, and more. The Lodge includes Club Cottages, Club Bungalows and Club Villas, offering one-, two-, three- and four-bedroom options with room for the entire family to gather. Each well-appointed home boasts generous living spaces, gourmet kitchens, dining areas, spacious lanai, private outdoor garden showers, and are walking distance from The Club and its collection of services. Often called the ultimate playground of the Pacific, Kaua‘i offers endless opportunities for an active lifestyle, while The Lodge at Kukui'ula pampers guests with all the luxury services and amenities of a fine hotel within a graceful residential setting.
